

Please read and sign the following statement to indicate your acceptance of responsibility. It is important that you be aware of the risks involved before you start the class. It may be more appropriate to start your dog with private training if control of your dog is an issue.

I understand that working with animals can present risks and damages to myself and my animal. It is my responsibility to keep my dog under control at all times during Stacy's Wag'N'Train training sessions, including walking to and from my car. I also agree that I alone am responsible for my own dog's behavior in the class and on school grounds. To minimize all risks, I agree to disclose to the class instructor any danger or sensitivities my dog may present. I will immediately inform the instructor of any situations that may provoke aggression in my dog and I will be responsible for avoiding those situations. If I will be bringing children to the class, I will be responsible for their care and appropriate supervision, especially around other dogs. I understand that I am participating in this class at my own risk and by signing this waiver I assume all risks and I agree to indemnify Stacy Braslau-Schneck, "Stacy's Wag'N'Train", its employees, volunteers, and "Pet Food Express" from any liability or damages related to my participation.

There will be no refund of monies or rescheduling of classes after the first night of class. I understand this is a class offering general advice, guidance and instruction for training and that no warranties are offered or implied.

By signing below, I commit to working with my dog for at least 10 minutes every day between classes, following the homework assignments given in class.
